BASKETBALL STINGERS NEAR DOUBLE SHOWDOWN

Concordia University Stingers men's and women's basketball teams both face sudden-death situations early next week in Q.U.A.A. play. Mike Hickey's Lady Stingers, first place finishers in the regular season, will be at home on Sunday afternoon (February 24th) at 1 p.m. in the Championship game of the women's section against either McGill or Bishop's. The Stingers received a bye into the final by virtue of their 8-1 record in league play. Second place McGill (7-2) will host the Gaiters on Friday.

Doug Daigneault's men's club faces the McGill Redmen next Tuesday at 8 p.m. (February 26th) at Loyola in the final league game of the season for both schools. The winner will advance to a C.I.A.U. regional tournament the following weekend as there are no playoffs in the men's section. The Stingers will be without all-star guard Craig Norman who is out for the season after having broken a bone in his foot in a game last week at McGill.

Both Concordia teams recorded wins last Friday at Loyola as the women downed Bishop's 61-51 and the men beat their counterparts from Lennoxville by a score of 68-60.
